

COVID-19 response fund

Times have never been tougher but There for You, UNISON's own charity for members, is here to support you through the pandemic.

If your finances have been affected by coronavirus, you could apply for a grant of up to £350 to help with:

- Day to day living costs
- Loss of employment, working hours or redundancy
- Loss of income due to withdrawal of Universal Credit/tax credits uplifts

Scan the code or visit
unison.org.uk/covid19fund to find out more and apply online.

COVID-19 response fund

Times have never been tougher but There for You, UNISON's own charity for members, is here to support you through the pandemic.

If your finances have been affected by coronavirus, you could apply for a grant of up to £350 to help with:

- Day to day living costs
- Loss of employment, working hours or redundancy
- Loss of income due to withdrawal of Universal Credit/tax credits uplifts

Generous funding from the CHSA has enabled us to offer this support to hard-working members in the health and care sectors.

Scan the code or visit
unison.org.uk/covid19fund to find out more and apply online.

